THE ORIGINS OF ROME

The city of Rome was founded 2700 years ago on the banks of the Tiber river.

Around the eighth century, a group of Latine and Sabine sheperds founded a village on the Palatin hill, near the Tiber River. Rome was born out of these villages.

THE LEGEND OF ROMOLUS AND REMUS

Romolus and Remus were two brothers wich grew up by shewolf which looked after them.

When Romolus and Remus grew up, they built a city on a hill by the River Tiber.

Both twins wanted to be the king of Rome. A day, the twins fought for to became a king of Rome.

Romolus killed Remus and he became the first King of Rome. This is supposed to be how Rome got its name.
